

Monumental Brass Society

St Mary's Church, Amersham, Buckinghamshire HP7 0DB

Saturday 11 April 2026

Open Meeting – All Welcome: 2:00pm

Detail of brass commemorating Henry Brudenell, esq., 1430, and his wife Eleanor, daughter of Hugh, son of Sir Thos. Preston.

Hugh Guilford will talk about the brasses and conservation work. Barney Tyrwhitt-Drake will present the Tyrwhitt-Drake family history and the family mausoleum, now known as the Drake Chapel.

Tea and cakes will be provided. During tea, there will be an opportunity to view the church, the Drake Chapel and the brasses, with medieval music performed by Amersham Music Group.

Postcode for satellite navigation is HP7 0DB. What 3 words: attending.passions.shorter. Adjacent parking may not be easy. The nearest station is Amersham. Taxi to the church is advisable, from station rank or pre-booked with A to Z (01494 722722), Amersham Cabs (01494 727727), or Hyrons (01494 786486). There is a toilet in the church.

If you plan to attend email events@mbs-brasses.co.uk